With A Political Party For Hold Up in West End Of City Escape Had Two Men From Primary Voting

Defined By Secretary Of Ralph Beach Robbed Of $12 By A State Thompson

The board of elections has received from Secretary of State Thompson a letter in which he construes the section of the primary election law defining an elector's affiliation with a political party. The matter is of much importance as affecting the right to vote at the primary on May 17. The etter is as follows:

The election laws are to be liberally construed to give effect to the purpose of the Legislature, and, so far as reasonable, freedom from action

Therefore, while the General Assembly of Ohio declared in the statute which you submit for my construction Sheriff P. J. Parker returned Satur- that: "The cause of challenge shall day afternoon from Orrville bringing be: That the person challanged has received or been promised some valuable reward or consideration for his charge. (Mansfield Shield)

Frank P. Radhler, D. W. Cummins Skiles, Green and Skiles, have filed suit in common pleas court against Selby H. Houston and George W. Crawford for $1,500 damages.

The plaintiffs say on April 29, 1910, they entered into negotiations with defendants for the purchase of a sorrel Belgian stallion, five years old, which for some time they say had been kept at the barn of Alex Silliman at Fredericktown.

The petition states that on oral other cities for which a nominal agreement was entered into whereby charge is made. The cheapest and the sum of $1,750 was to be paid to defendants upon delivery at Shelby.

The plaintiffs say defendants refused to deliver the stallion. They say they have been damaged in the sum of $1,500.

Who Put A Big Revolver To Manager Sam Hantman's Close Call

Manager Sam Hantman of the Cooper theatre and Mr. Ralph Beach, an employee of the theatre, narrowly escaped being shot by a revolver while in the lobby of the theatre Monday morning at about 8;30 o'clock. On Saturday evening, an old pistol was 🚣 used in one of the acts in the bill and in some manner it became broken and Beach was given the shooting iron to mend and bring back Monday morning. As he had been held up on bold holdup and robbery took Saturday evening, he procured a small revolver for personal safety and by mistake, gave Mr. Hantman this gun instead of the old pistol which he had mended, and in order to test it, the manager pulled the trigger. As a result, a shot was fired, the gun being his hand, passing within an inch of Beach's body. The bullet buried itseif in the wall of the theatre. Mr.
